Introducing DeltaHacks VI

Welcome to DeltaHacks! DeltaHacks is a weekend-long event where students with different backgrounds work together for 24 hours to create an innovative technological solution to a real-world problem. As a Judge, you will be helping decide the winners for various different challenges and streams. We look forward to working with you to make this year's DeltaHacks a huge success!

Before the event

- A Please join the Slack group and set up your profile including a picture of yourself and contact information. If you are interested in mentoring during the event, include things that you consider to be your expertise/strengths in your profile to help the attendees find you
- B Another information package with maps and the finalized schedule will be sent out closer to the start of the event

During the event

1 The Project Expo is scheduled to take place between 12:30 PM and 3:30 PM on January 26th with a judge debriefing session taking place from 12:00 PM to 12:30 PM. Please arrive at 11:30 AM at the latest to get registered as a judge. It is imperative that you are registered before 12:00 PM to be assigned projects. Please let us know if you may not be able to get there in time

Intellectual Property

By default, an intellectual property created at DeltaHacks VI belongs to the student team, and the team agrees that any member of the team has the right to continue to develop the ideas and software either individually or as a group. Where there are commercial possibilities for any project, it is recommended that the parties involved agree in writing on the sharing of the financial returns. When making these agreements, keep in mind that our attendees are not licensed professionals. Your goal is to collaborate with our attendees but you should not expect to leave the event with a fully functional application or website. If you have any questions or concerns about this, please email relations@deltahacks.com.
